

The YAOUNDE Community

Sister MAMY Viviane RAZAFITSALAMA, Sister-in-Charge of the Yaounde Community

Following an accident and many months of convalescence, I thank the Lord for all His gifts. Thanks to the doctors, to madame Odile who was with me for six months, to our Congregation for the care and prayer ..., not forgetting the help and attentiveness of the Bishops, the priests, collaborators, various Congregations, as well as lay people, especially GASYCAM. Thank you for life, for encounters: may God bless you all!

Sister RASOAMANANANDRO Florentine SAINT MARIA GORETTI CENTRE

I work in a centre for feminine formation preparing young girls for their future. The girls follow courses in cutting out and sewing, Embroidery and related learning.

Generally they are smart. Day after day we try to overcome the difficulties we face such as an insufficient education or a lack of resources to pay fees for schooling.

In spite of all this I can confirm that they make good progress.

Sister NGEFAC Prudencia ATEM

Teaching in St Michael the Archangel Primary School in Elig edzoa is a good opportunity for me because it gives me great joy to pass on information to young children, even if it is not always easy. But with the help of the Holy Spirit and relying on our Charism – unity and reconciliation, I am happy in my mission. I would also want to encourage the other teachers by witnessing to the fact that there is nothing more beautiful than teaching!

Sister Alice ETOKI

Greetings ! It is a joy for me to tell you about my mission in the Archdiocese of Yaounde. Alongside my study of theology and pastoral training for Religious (ITPR), I attend vocation awareness mornings. (MAVO). The group meets on the second Sunday of each month in Mvolye. Sometimes we visit parishes to meet young people and Christians who are seeking because our aim is to help the young in the discernment of their vocation. This year the theme is « youth and holiness ». It is a joy for us to find young people who are attentive to the Word of the Lord who calls them and their response to the call.

It is not always easy to attract the participation of the young but we know that vocation is a call from God and God speaks to each one's heart.

"That they may have life in abundance!"
