We've lived as « Sisters of christ » for some time but we still have a whole future before us. So, let us experience the God who « creates, liberates and reconciles » as our Constitutions state. We experience this God in our everyday lives. God is ever creating, God reconciles but always with our cooperation. Sometimes we need time, prayer, patience, but God frees us to live our charism, to gather together, to live in unity whether in our communities, with our families, with friends, in work places, and also reconciliation with ourselves. When we are reconciled with self we can be reconciled with others. So, « Sisters of Christ »..Yes ! because Christ calls us each day.

Yesterday we celebrated the joy of Christmas and today is the feast of Saint Stephen who was martyred. We need to accept that in our journey there are some difficult times, hard times. But tomorrow St John tells us, « the Word was made flesh and He lived among us » Let us welcome the Word and as Sisters of Christ let us be full of joy and enthusiasm.
